Opción #1

- Students paint their own representation depicting fantasy or reality, and present information about the artist they are modeling and an explanation of their painting in a formal presentation.

Students in the class fill out a critique sheet to then give the presenters.

Opción #2

- Students select an American painter to compare to Diego Rivera or Salvador Dalí. They write an email to the local art museum explaining why they should have a special exhibition of the paintings of these two artists.

Opción #3

- Students write an essay comparing the traditions of their community with the traditions shown in the works of art studied:
Compara los productos, prácticas y perspectivas culturales de una tradición de tu comunidad con una tradición en una de las obras de arte que hemos estudiado.
